Circular No: 003/2023

To:

All the IDA Memebrs,
IDA Tamilnadu State Branch.

Dear Members of IDA,

Warm greetings in the name of IDA and almighty.

As you all know that we are passing through a centenary year of dentistry in India and seventy five years of IDA as a body of our profession.

We Tamilnadu IDA has rich heritage as a professional body. Now in this twenty first century are we capable to be a global competitor for dentistry. Anyway let the past be history and the present and future be a revolution. Any structural growth can be accomplished only with collective thought processes. So we on behalf of IDA state office request each one to contribute your bit in the form of ideas, planning and positive thinking. Kindly restrain from expressing your personal thought process or voicing your mentors thoughts about profession and other criticism in an open forum as you are not only demeaning yourself but also among the public and other professional bodies .

Let's build our profession collectively by thoughts and deeds.

We have to equip with good skills in all spheres and on scientific basis. Kindly participate in regular CDE and CDH activities so that your time and participation will give value to our self and our profession at large. Creating public awareness and exposing the advancements are some of our personal duties Therefore we appeal to each one of our colleagues that we have to work with a vision and with a Four year strategic planning with a clear annual appraisal discussed at every AGM in a healthy manner.
